

Our Dear Co-Workers,

Another overdue clip – this one of our Youth Camp. In this clip it shows the area that we live in up in Lapoc – some sensational footage.

It also shows lots of other things that the young people do together at Camp – it was an amazing time and tears welled up in Deb and my eyes as we watched this clip. We missed it last year due to the turmoil that our family went through.

On that note - family wise – we are holding our own but there are still some significant challenges and trials we are going through – although slowly Jubab is healing. Please continue to pray for him and for Deb and I also. It is good to be back in the Philippines.
